Active Learning Workshop for Graduate Students

Ching-Yu Huang, PhD

The Associate Director for Active Learning Initiatives at the Center for Teaching and Learning
University of Georgia

Join us for an Active Learning Workshop that is tailored to the Department of Sociology's specific needs. While intended for Sociology faculty and graduate students, all who teach or are planning on teaching in the future would benefit from participating. This workshop will be led by Dr. Ching-Yu Huang who, as Associate Director for Active Learning Initiatives, oversees development and implementation of active learning instructional development programming to build a culture of active learning at UGA. With 14 years of teaching experience, she specializes in active learning, educational technology, and inclusive teaching. Dr. Huang is passionate about promoting an equitable learning environment for all students through teaching frameworks focusing on inclusion, active learning, and student engagement.
